

Re-Industrialization – Impact and Opportunities for Hong Kong

Speaker profile

Professor Ronald Chung Chi-kit, Deputy Executive Director, Vocational Training Council (VTC) of Hong Kong

Ronald CHUNG is Deputy Executive Director of the Vocational Training Council (VTC) of Hong Kong. He is responsible mainly for the policy aspects related to programmes at degree level and above, applied research, and academic services for students.

Prior to joining the VTC, he was Professor and Department Chairman of Mechanical and Automation Engineering of the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK). He was the Associate Dean of the Engineering Faculty of CUHK from 2009 to 2011.

He received his first degree from the University of Hong Kong, and obtained his PhD from University of Southern California (USA). He is a fellow of HKIE, a fellow of BCS, and CEng of the Engineering Council of UK. He has also been the Adjunct Professor of the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) since 2013.